INTERMENT AT CULPEPER

House Adjourns and Speaker Appoints Committee to Attend
Funeral

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 9.—

Hon. John F. Rixey, Representative from the Eighth District of Virginia, died in this city this morning a few minutes past 8 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at the residence of Surgeon-General of the Navy, Admiral Presley M. Rixey, at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, conducted by Rev. Carter Page, pastor of the Episcopal Church at Brandy, Culpeper county, Mr. Rixey's home. Mr. Rixey was a communicant of the Presbyterian Church, but as there was no church of that sect at Brandy, he always attended the church of which Rev. Mr. Page was pastor.

The House adjourned to-day almost immediately after convening. The chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, made the following allusion to Mr. Rixey's death in his prayer at the convening of the House: "Our hearts are profoundly moved by the news of the sudden death of one who for years, in modesty and worth and patriotism, made himself to be felt upon the floor of this House, rendering to his country a service worthy to be recorded by the angels of God. We most humbly pray that his colleagues, his friends and the dear ones of his heart, may be comforted by the thought that, some time, somewhere, they will be united to him, where sorrow never comes."

Representative William A. Jones, the senior member of the Virginia delegation, announced the death of his colleague, sending to the desk the usual resolutions expressive of the sympathy of the House of Representatives for the family of the deceased, and providing for the appointment of a committee of seventeen members to attend the funeral at Culpeper on Monday.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the House adjourned, prior to which the chair announced the following committee to attend the funeral:

Representatives William A. Jones, Harry Maynard, John Lamb, Robert G. Southall, E. H. Tamm, Charles C. Glass, James Hay, Campbell Stimp and H. D. Flood, of Virginia; Fess, of Illinois; Meyer, of Louisiana; W. W. Kitchin, of North Carolina; Gregg, of Texas; Williams, of Mississippi; Hammond, of Missouri; and Burton, of Ohio.

The body will be taken to Culpeper Monday morning on the train leaving this city at 9 o'clock. The interment will take place in the old family burying ground at Culpeper.

Immediately after the news of the death of Mr. Rixey was received at the House this morning his desk was draped and a mass of flowers placed upon it. The members of the Virginia delegation will send a floral tribute to be placed on the casket containing the mortal remains of their dead colleague.

The death of Mr. Rixey came as a severe shock to the members of his family. His condition was known to be very serious, but it was not thought that the end was imminent. He was taken considerably worse last night. This morning his condition was seen to be critical. Before his brother, Mr. C. Jones Rixey, could reach his bedside he was dead. Mrs. Rixey, the surgeon-general in whose home the end came, and Miss Rixey, a sister, were the only immediate members of the family present.

The pallbearers will be Representative John Lamb, of Richmond; Representative Wm. A. Jones, of the First Virginia District; Eppa Hunton, Jr., of Richmond; Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington; Colonel Robert E. Lee, of Fairfax; Albert Fletcher, of Warrenton; George Shackelford, of Orange; Hubert Snowden, of Alexandria; W. H. W. Moran, of Manassas; W. C. Marshall, of Warrenton; S. P. Janney, of Leesburg; J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas; Judge

THREE EPOCHS IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

MRS. ELVA BARBER EDWARDS

There are three critical stages in a woman's life which leave their mark in her career. The first of these stages is womanhood, or the change from a care free girl to budding womanhood. The second is motherhood, and the third is Change of Life.

Perils surround each of these stages, and most of the misery that comes to women through ill health dates from one or another of these important crises.

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs has carried thousands of young girls over the critical period of puberty, has prepared mothers for childbirth, and in later years carried them safely through the change of life more successfully than any other remedy in the world. Thousands of testimonials from grateful persons, two of which are here published, substantiate this fact beyond contradiction.

Mrs. George Walters of Woodlawn, Ill. writes:

"I feel it my duty to tell you of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me in preparing for childbirth. After suffering and losing my child, my friend advised me to try your valuable medicine, and the result was that I had very little inconvenience, a quick recovery and as healthy a child as can be found anywhere. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a blessing to all expectant mothers."

Mrs. Elva Barber Edwards, of Cathlamet, Wash., writes:

"I want to tell you how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carried me through the critical period of the Change of Life without any trouble whatever, also cured me of a very severe female weakness, I cannot say enough in praise of what your medicine has done for me."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Edwards it will do for other women in their condition. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and helpful.

discussed the subject showed a wealth of information surprising to those who did not know how earnestly the modest Virginian had studied the naval establishment and its needs.

Mr. Rixey had for years been a member of the Presbyterian Church, practicing in his quiet way the religion which he professed. He was a good man, one whose sturdy honesty, attractive modesty and unassuming charity bound him with closest bonds to those who knew him best. There are many able men and good men in the district which he represented in Congress for a decade, less a few days, but it will be hard to find one who combines all the qualities illustrated by Mr. Rixey as public servant and Virginia gentleman.

CULPEPER WILL DO
HIM ALL HONORCongressman Rixey's Old Home
Distressed Over His Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CULPEPER, VA., February 9.—Hon. John Franklin Rixey, congressman from this district, died in Washington to-day, in the fifty-fifth year of his age. Mr. Rixey was born and reared in Culpeper county, where, previous to his first election to Congress, he was several times Commonwealth's attorney. At the time of his death, he was serving his fourth term in the United States House of Representatives, and to which he was also elected last fall to the incoming Congress. He was always an honorable and faithful representative of his people in the various public positions to which they elevated him. His death Congressmen have been in falling health for the past several years, and at last succumbed to an incurable throat trouble.

Services over the body will be held to-morrow in the Presbyterian Church in Washington, of which he was a member. On Monday morning his body will be brought here and laid by those of his parents in Fairview Cemetery. A congressional delegation will accompany the remains. This bar, of which Mr. Rixey was a member, has been willing to do what he could for her citizens, and who accomplished much good for a large number of Alexandrians.

Regret in Alexandria.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALEXANDRIA, VA., February 9.—News of the death of Representative John F. Rixey was received here this morning with general regret, where Mr. Rixey had a host of friends. In the death of Representative John F. Rixey Alexandria loses one who was willing to do what he could for her citizens, and who accomplished much good for a large number of Alexandrians.

RIXEY'S SEAT IS DESIRED BY MANY

In connection with the nomination, Judge White, of Fauquier, is one; another is Hon. John Barbour, of Culpeper, one of the ablest lawyers in the district, and brother-in-law of the late Representative, and Hon. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, may be a candidate, although he has declined all suggestions that he enter the race.

Colonel James C. Hooe, of Loudoun, has been spoken of as a candidate, and he, too, may make the fight.

Colonel Harper.

Colonel R. Harper, of Loudoun, a close friend of Mr. Rixey's, has been mentioned in connection with the nomination. He is a very busy man as president of the American National Bank. He said to-day he did not expect to enter the contest.

There will be no lack of entries. The card will be full long before Governor Swanson orders a special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Rixey. Of course, the seat will be vacant until the 4th of March, which will mark the birth of the Sixtieth Congress.

It is presumed the election will be ordered for the fourth Tuesday in November, although candidates for the Legislature will be chosen on that date, and there is antipathy in Virginia to mixing State and Federal elections. The candidates will be chosen in a primary election.

MURDER SUSPECTS.

Gregory and Corvin to Face the Charge.

TAEWELL, VA., February 9.—There have been no developments in the arrest of Corvin Gregory and James Corvin, who are believed by many to know something of the mysterious death of County Clerk T. E. George, whose murdered body was found in Plum Creek Branch just five weeks ago to-day. When arrested the men were employed on the estate of Major Samuel Walton, a well-known contractor at Falls Mills, where it is said, they have been over fifteen years, and have hitherto borne good reputations so far as is known here.

Attorney Bernard McClaugherty and York Coleman of Bluefield, W. Va., have been employed by Major Walton to defend the men in the preliminary hearing, which will be held here Saturday.

Mr. Rixey and Miss Ellen Barber, daughter of the late Senator John S. Barbour, were married. Of this union there resulted four children—Miss Mary Barber, twenty-one years of age; John, a student at Hampden-Sydney; Edith Presley, at school at the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, and James Barbour, who is with his sister, Miss Mary Barber Rixey, at their aunt's, Mrs. Wallace, in Nashville, Tenn. None of the family save Mrs. Rixey, who was that Culpeper jurist, came to have such confidence in him that it was hard to win a verdict of acquittal when he asked a conviction.

In 1896 Mr. Rixey succeeded Hon. Elias Meredith, of Prince George's county, as the representative in Congress from the Eighth District. He had a hard fight for the nomination, but it is significant that he never had to make another contest for the honor, being re-elected every two years, with practically no opposition from the opposite party. When he was nominated and elected last fall he was not even in the State, having gone to Colorado in search of health.

His stay in Colorado, which lasted several months, was not beneficial. The altitude gave him relief from the throat trouble from which he suffered, but it affected his heart so seriously that he had to return East in the fall. He then went to Liberty, New York, in the Adirondacks, hoping that the cold dry climate would benefit him, but he was disappointed, and just prior to the Christmas holidays he returned to this city. Since that time he has been at the home of Surgeon-General Presley M. Rixey, of the Navy.

A God-Given Medicine.

REV. JOHN C. OREBAUGH.

Rev. John C. Orebaugh, a prominent clergyman and temperance advocate, says that DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY is a God-Given Medicine.

Thousands of temperance advocates and clergymen throughout the country agree with Dr. Orebaugh, and have the courage of their convictions, to recommend DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY as the greatest tonic stimulant, and body-builder known to science.

"I have suffered from irregular appetite, diarrhoea, then constipation, abnormal temperature, often below normal; at times the memory is dull and I feel stupid. I have tried many treatments with no beneficial results. Pardon me to furthermore say that I have always been opposed to whiskey as a beverage, but have always believed that PURE whiskey used as a medicine was a God-Given one. I NEVER found PURE until I got 'DUFFY'S.' The best I could get seemed to increase my trouble and would burn in my stomach, but I find nothing disagreeable with DUFFY'S. It has done me a vast good and I trust others may use it through my recommendation."

(Rev.) JOHN C. OREBAUGH, Anderson, Ind., Oct. 2, 1906.
